

WEBINAR ON 28.4. AT 13-16 (EET)

Towards a more diverse literature for children: A meeting-point and how to get started

What kind of books do we need so that all children feel included in the stories? We invite all new and existing children's authors, illustrators and publishers as well as everyone working with children's literature to attend our webinar.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!
REGISTER FOR FREE:
MEETING REGISTRATION

PROGRAM

- 13:00 Alexandra Stang, Goethe-Institut and Kaisa Laaksonen, The Finnish Institute for Children's Literature: Welcome!
- 13:15 Leading expert Anna Moring, Monimuotoiset perheet ry: Diverse families and family situations in children's literature
- 13:30 Editor in chief Frank Kühne, publishing house Carlsen: Books for all children - Diversity in children's books in Germany
- 14:00 Key Note: DEd Jaana Pesonen: Representations of diversity in Finnish children's literature: Examining gender, ethnicity and dis/ability in the books from 2010s and 2020s
- 14:45 Break
- 15:00 Illustrator Carlos da Cruz: When French popular culture meets Finnish history: Apassit children's book series
- 15:20 Children's author Johanna Lestelä: How to write a diverse children's book and get published? - My story
- 15:40 Discussion
- 15.50 Networking

For more information, please visit the event website.
The webinar is part of the DRIN-project.

